

RESOLUTION:

Dear members of the Council. Currently, according to the approved documents, the FIDE Council directly controls the following document: Regulations on Registration & Licensing of Players. Obviously, in the spirit of this document, it falls under the responsibility of the QC, so while retaining the Council's right to change the document as necessary, it is proposed to reinstate the Qualification Commission's control over the above document, including with the right to submit to the Council the necessary proposals for amendments to the document.

Sincerely

FIDE Legal Advisor
