After following closely and studying the situation in the South African Chess Federation (Chess SA), which has been in the center of conflicts and challenging the leadership for years;

Given that the said battles obviously cannot bring any positive development to the game of chess on the whole and to Chess SA in particular;

Given that a democratically elected leadership is undoubtedly required in order avoid any controversies and restore the trust to federation;

Given that on 13 March 2023 SASCOC (the South African Olympic Committee) issued a letter according to which Chess SA was suspended;

FIDE Council hereby decides as follows:

1. To appoint a task-force for conflict resolution in Chess SA with the following members:
 - 1.1. FIDE Vice President Mr. Olalekan Emmanuel Adeyemi as a Reverse Delegate for South Africa Chess Federation;
 - 1.2. FIDE Legal Director Mr. Aleksandr Martynov as a member of the task force with consulting rights;
 - 1.3. FIDE Continental Advisor Mr. Benard Wanjala as a member of the task force.
2. The appointments are effective from the date of this resolution and till results of eligible federation elections are approved by FIDE.
3. To authorize the reverse delegate within his mandate:
 - to evaluate and send FIDE requests about FIDE titles, ratings, events;
 - to evaluate and send FIDE requests about the participation of players in FIDE competitions, including team events, such as Chess Olympiads;
 - to liaise with national authorities, facilitating the solution of internal matters, if requested.
4. To oblige the Reverse Delegate to organize relevant consultations with SASCOC, FIDE

Constitutional Commission (if required) and all interested parties with reference to the elections in Chess SA, and to organize presidential elections in Chess SA within 3 months from the date of this Resolution in such a manner that all interested parties should be guaranteed their right to participate and to vote subject to democratic procedures. Other members of the task force have consulting rights for the above tasks.

5. To mandate the members of the task force to be part of the election commission if needed.
6. To invite SASCOC representative in order to monitor the elections procedure or be a part of the elections commission.
7. To invite the representative of the FIDE African Continent to monitor the elections procedure.
8. To specify that FIDE shall be the leader in the Chess SA elections procedure, that FIDE shall be responsible for the procedure and that it shall have the majority of votes and/or a decisive vote in the electoral commission. All and any participants of the elections procedure can only be admitted to the procedure upon providing their consent to FIDE authority over the procedure and its right to announce the final decision on all conflict matters and issues.

Dear Mr. Martynov,

RE: INTERNAL APPEAL CHESS SA TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF FIDE

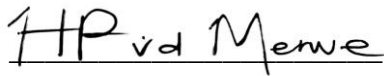

1. We thank you for your letter dated 14 November 2023 setting out the procedures to be followed for purposes of the internal appeal to the General Assembly of FIDE.
2. Accompanied with this letter is our client's notice of appeal to be placed on the agenda for the meeting of the General Assembly to be held on 17 December 2023. Kindly acknowledge receipt thereof and confirmation that it is placed on the agenda of the meeting of the General Assembly.

3. Our client's furthermore detailed grounds of appeal as required and referred to in your letter of 14 November 2023 will follow and be submitted on or before 1 December 2023.
4. We also wish to specifically draw your attention to paragraph 5 of the notice of appeal following the contents of paragraph 5 of your letter dated 14 November 2023. We have included it in the notice of appeal as we were unsure as to whom the request is to be directed or what procedure is required for purposes of the request so that the results of the forthcoming election not be recognised and announced and suspended until our client's appeal has been fully exhausted. If this requires any further motivation for consideration by any organ of FIDE, kindly advise so that we can be able to do so. It speaks for itself that unless the outcome of the elections are not suspended pending the appeal process to the General Assembly and thereafter to CAS, if necessary, our client and its current legitimate board will be severely prejudiced and such will defeat our client's right of appeal.
5. Could you please also advise us for purposes of the meeting of the General Assembly whether it will be conducted via video link or otherwise and whether our client with its legal representatives may appear before the General Assembly for purposes of any further submissions regarding our client's appeal in order to explain or clarify any issues or questions that might arise.

Yours faithfully,

Mr. D. Eloff
Director
Hurter Spies Inc.

Dear Mr. Eloff.

Regarding your letter, we could comment as follows:

1. According to Article 35 of the FIDE Charter, an interested party may appeal the final decision of FIDE to the CAS within the time limits provided for in this article.

The decision is final after appealing it before the FIDE General Assembly.

Considering that in this case the decision on the appointment of Reverse delegate and his powers was made by the FIDE Council on 10 May 2023, this decision is subject to appeal before the General Assembly in accordance with art. 17.2(l) and 35.2 of the FIDE Charter.

2. The next General Assembly is scheduled for December 17, 2023, and according to the FIDE Charter (Article 17), the final agenda must be communicated to the federations no later than one month before the Assembly.

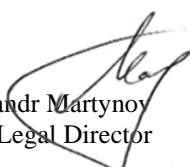

3. In order to maintain the balance of the parties and comply with the FIDE Charter, by analogy with the established CAS practice in similar situations, you can send a Notice of your intention to appeal to us by November 17, 2023 at 13.00 CET, containing at least approximate requests to the Assembly. This will be the basis for putting the relevant issue on the agenda.

In the future, you may, until December 1, 2023, 13.00 CET, file an Appeal brief on behalf of your client containing the facts, legal arguments, and prayers for relief with other applicable materials that will be submitted to the Assembly.

4. Please note that your client's appeal must be filed in compliance with the usual legal rules applicable for a legal appeal, including but not limited to the locus standi of the appellant, the authority of its representatives and the grounds of appeal.

5. Regarding the election procedure scheduled for November 25, 2023, there are currently no grounds for cancelling such elections. However, if an appeal will be filed as indicated above, we will consider refraining from recognizing the results of these elections until your client's right of appeal has been exhausted.

Yours sincerely,

Aleksandr Martynov
FIDE Legal Director
